The Choice of a Weatherproof

for use on Active Service involves two alternatives—investment in a sound security or speculation.

The coat with a doubtful reputation may turn out a success, but the selection of one that has proved its quality is the wiser course.

Amongst the legion of inventions for protecting the soldier's health against bad weather, none has won such universal approbation as The

TIELOCKEN

—the weatherproof permanently identified with "England's greatest soldier"

Thousands of Officers, after subjecting it to the severest tests, enthusiastically pronounce it "the finest safeguard the war has produced."

THE TIELOCKEN ensures that, from chin to knees, every vulnerable part of the body is doubly protected.

It affords effective security, yet is self-ventilating—resists anything in the way of wet, yet is free from rubber or oiled-silk—is airylight, and yet maintains snug warmth in cold weather.

Another advantage is its quick adjustment. A belt holds it securely—no buttons to fasten.

Every Burberry garment is labelled "Burberrys."

FORTITUDE.

IN this issue of Canada the names are given of 100 officers killed and 235 wounded and missing in the great assault and capture of the Vimy Ridge, as well as those of many N.C.O.s and men, and the full tale of the price Canadians have paid is yet far from told. The call for fortitude was never more insistent than to-day. As a united people the British Empire prepared to spend and be spent in disarming the murderers of peace; but, great as have been the griefs and perplexities in the past thirty-two months, we must be prepared for more to come. We have to face losses on a more gigantic scale, even as our power of offensive is to-day so much the greater. We must prepare ourselves for severe privations, and practise more rigid economy so as to conserve every ounce of provisions and supplies for our fighting men. And, lastly, we have to be prepared for even blacker outrages against our common humanity by the degenerate and desperate Hun.

It was never more certain than to-day that the power is in our hands to crush and for ever destroy this organised evil which conspired for world domination, but the sternest fortitude is required to ensure that victory be whole and complete. As the weakness and the failure of the enemy become more apparent, there comes the danger of relaxed tension and effort among the Allies.

In spite of the United States President's insistence that the foe is only the Hohenzollern, we and the French, the Belgians and Russians, who have seen the bloody devilry of men from all the German tribes wreaked not merely on the wounded and captured, but on women and children and priests, know with whom we fight. So morally perverted have the whole German people become from the poisonous doctrines systematically and deliberately instilled by the Prussians—who delight in war—that the punishment of the leaders alone will not suffice.

It is the best of the manhood of Canada and the other parts of the Empire who have fought and died in battle with this evil people. Those they have fought against are not of the same moral value to the world, and we have to see to it that the sacrifice has not been in vain. The people in every part of the Empire must strengthen the hands of their Governments by showing an eagerness for self-sacrifice and sustained determination which will stimulate and harden the fortitude of people and leaders alike. An ill service is done to the common cause by those ignoble prints which seek a profitable popularity by shouting of a beaten foe and an early peace. The Hun was beaten the day he forswore his oath and outraged the law of civilised nations by invading Belgium, but he has yet to be brought to his knees and securely bound. In this supreme and vital conflict this Empire and other nations are finding anew their souls. Nothing should be encouraged or allowed which may cause any relaxing of effort or impair the fortitude of the people at large. We have shed much of the best blood of our manhood; it has been shed willingly and for the best cause for which ever men took up arms. We owe it to these men that the people at home should be worthy of their sacrifice. We can best show it by our fortitude and singleness of mind until this tyranny be utterly destroyed.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.

Thoroughness at Vimy Ridge.

The Canadians' victory at Vimy Ridge—which, it has been said, may well prove to be one of the decisive events in the progress of the war on the Western Front—was achieved by reason not only of the bravery and determination of the Dominion troops, but also of the thoroughness with which the attack was prepared for and organised. An interesting instance of this latter fact is given by one of the Press correspondents.

As has been done on other occasions, a scale model of the ground was prepared from aerial photographs, from maps, and from direct observation. This model showed the trench systems, the network of roads and tracks, the railways and streams, and the contour of the ridges, spurs, gullies, and plateaux. "Over this lilliputian landscape," says the correspondent, "staff officers of high rank pored for hours on end, and officers and non-coms. from the Canadian and British units which were detailed for the assault were coached in their parts on this wonderful model. Much artillery plotting was done over this fascinating plan."

"Per Ardua ad Astra."

Sir Robert Borden, in the course of a very interesting speech at Edinburgh, where he received the Freedom of the City, gave the public the benefit of some information recently presented to the Imperial War Cabinet, which he properly described as "very reassuring." It was in regard to the efficiency of our Air Service, which has been subject to much criticism. Many Canadians are to be found in both the naval and military branches of the Air Service, as their temperament and character seem specially suited to the requirements of this most attractive but exacting of services; and Sir Robert Borden declared himself proud to know that they have been found daring, resourceful and efficient.

In proof of the contention of the authorities that in personnel our Flying Service is superior to the enemy and second to none, he instanced: "The greater extent of the work carried out by our Air Service, as compared with that of the enemy, the higher artillery efficiency thus attained, the resulting diminution of our casualties in the trenches, and the increased loss inflicted upon the Germans through information obtained by air observation and reconnaissance."

An English-Speaking League.

A very interesting article in last week's issue (No. 26) of The New Europe discusses the possibility of a union of Anglo-Saxons forming the beginning of a League to Enforce Peace. This union would be made up of all the English-speaking people. It is not improbable that, as a result of the widening of vision which must come to the United States as the result of active participation in this world war, such a confederation to preserve the peace of the world might become possible. As the writer in The New Europe says, an adequate executive organ for the entire foreign action of all the English-speaking peoples would offer the opportunity, through such an organ, for a friendly Power like the United States "to explain its relation to the British Commonwealth and to define its position towards the latter much more easily than is the case at present."

We do not yet know what good to mankind in general this war may bring forth, but there will certainly be great changes, and one of them, we hope, will be found in infinitely better and more friendly relations between the nations who have been comrades-in-arms, and these will have the power, if they have the will, to form a League to Enforce Peace.

Wheat Saving.

The appeal made by the authorities for national economy in the consumption of bread is urgent. The logic of facts shows its necessity, and the patriotism and honour of the people must see to its accomplishment. Compulsory rationing is not satisfactory, nor is it at all suited to the character of our people. Mr. Kennedy Jones, who has recently been put in charge of National Food Economy, has been very frank in his public statements, which carry confidence. After most careful and exhaustive investigation of supplies, and of the margin of loss through submarines and mines, he makes the definite statement that, if the people in these islands will voluntarily reduce their consumption of bread or flour by one lb. per week, we can laugh at the German submarines.

No one need fear the pinch of shortage of food if everyone will forgo a slice of bread a day of 2 1/7 oz. If this frank and sensible appeal is brought to the notice of every adult person, there will be few who will wilfully ignore it. It is not a large thing to ask of the nation which has willingly made far greater sacrifices, though none quite so universally personal. By giving up this slice of bread, or its equivalent in flour, some 20,000 tons a week are saved. While the private citizen is asked to eat less, it will be well if the military authorities rigidly insist on the suppression of waste in all the home establishments and base camps at the Front.

A Thought for Free Traders.

It has been known for a long time past that the peculiarly gross and practically minded German had made use of the bodies of his dead to obtain certain animal products, but the horrible and nauseating disclosures of a largely capitalised private industry to treat chemically the poor remains of German "cannon fodder" has filled the world with loathing and disgust.

As the output of this gruesome factory finds its way into the food of pigs and the ingredients of soap, which the Hun, with his ghoulish sense of humour, might export for foreign consumption, even the most rabid Free Traders in this country may now be willing to reconsider their attitude towards putting a barrier between us and tainted German goods.

Common-Sense Trade.

Sir Edward Morris, the Premier of Newfoundland—the oldest British self-governing Colony—is one of the most broad-minded of Imperial statesmen. During his various visits to this country, he usually leaves wise and thoughtful suggestions for those who are Imperially-minded like himself to discuss and consider. Speaking last week at a meeting of the Imperial Mission held at the Royal Overseas Officers' Club, he clearly argued that the only satisfactory way of meeting the huge indebtedness of the United Kingdom caused by the war will be to adopt a policy of limited protection. With his sturdy belief in the good commonsense and rectitude of the British people, he dismissed the argument against protection based on the fears of the possibility of corrupting influences.

If the views of Sir Edward Morris and other sane Imperialists who think like him, are adopted at the end of this war, there is an assurance of greater unity, greater strength, and greater prosperity to the whole Empire. He put the case in favour of Imperial Trade Preference in a nutshell, when he said that if we protected our industries, if we husbanded our sources of raw material within the Empire, if we safeguarded our consuming public against exploitation, and if we assured our workmen a proper living wage there was no reason why this should not become a self-supporting and prosperous Empire with a productive and earning capacity equal to the heaviest financial responsibilities it would be called upon to bear.

CANADIAN FOODSTUFFS FOR THE ALLIES.

The Canadian Government has placed wheat, wheat flour, and semolina on the free list, thus availing itself of the reciprocal provisions of the American Tariff, and opening the United States market to the wheat of Canada. This step is of supreme importance to the Western farmers, who have long been agitating for it. The change (says the Ottawa correspondent of the Morning Post) is due to the scarcity of tonnage and the reduction of British imports for milling purposes; also to the fact that the United States and Canada are pooling their interests to feed the Allies. The duty removed is 30 cents per bushel of wheat and 45 cents per barrel of flour.

The Canadian Red Cross Society is now furnishing every Canadian soldier admitted into a British hospital with a toilet set of the same kind as those issued by the Dominion Ordnance Department to Canadian hospitals. As there is an average of about 50 per cent. of the Canadian sick and wounded in British hospitals it will be realised that these gifts, which are much appreciated by the men, represent a considerable sum of money.

VIMY RIDGE AND AFTER.

Canadians Pressing Forward—How the Germans Were Thrown Back.

At the beginning of the present week the operations on the Canadian Front were greatly interfered with by the bad weather; but during the previous few days the men from the Dominion vigorously pressed forward from Vimy Ridge, and they contributed largely towards the success of the operations at Lièvin and around Lens.

On Friday, April 13, Sir Douglas Haig reported:—"We have seized the villages of Bailleul, Willerval, Vimy, Petit-Vimy, Givenchy-en-Gohelle, and Angres, and have gained a footing in the enemy's trenches north-east of Lens. In this area we have captured prisoners and guns."

On Saturday he reported:—"We have seized Vimy Station, La Chaudière, and the enemy's positions at Fosse No. 6 and Buquet Mill, between Givenchy-en-Gohelle and Angres. The guns taken from the enemy in this area include four 8-inch howitzers."

IMMENSITY OF THE ACHIEVEMENT.

The special correspondent of the Press Association at the Front—who declares that "the victory on Vimy Ridge may well prove one of the decisive events in the progress of the war on the Western Front—summarises the account given by a Staff officer of the development of the attack.

"It did," he says, "bring home to me very vividly the immensity of the achievement. There was great danger of a prompt counter-attack from the north-east, where the Germans were in strength, and a glance at the model rendered it clear that the key to the position was Hill 145. This the Army Commander clearly realised from the outset. As a matter of fact so admirably was the whole thing schemed and carried out that the cost was extraordinarily light.

"During the 9th and 10th, in poisonous weather, the Germans fought hard to regain the vantage they had lost, but without the least success. On the 11th there was a lull, during which the Canadians worked hard at consolidating, but the enemy had been stiffening his forces for another great effort, and it was feared that an effort was to be made to re-capture the village. There was but one way successfully to counter any prospect of this succeeding, and this was by storming the hill to the north-west of the Vimy Ridge known as the Pimple. On the morning of the 12th an Irish and a British battalion acting with the Canadians, carried this position with irresistible dash, capturing 94 of the German guardsmen, nine of their machine-guns, and three trench mortars.

CAPTURE OF THE "PIMPLE."

The Canadians and their Irish comrades (says one correspondent) advanced shortly after five o'clock in the morning, under the double protection of a well-laid barrage and a blinding snowstorm. They were hardly checked by the wild machine-gun barrage that strove to penetrate their own strong curtain fire. They went heavily up the slippery bank in the mud and slush, moving laboriously with their heavy kit over broken wire, holes, and the débris which litters the whole hillside. "The going was awful," said one of the men who came back. "It was impossible to do more than crawl like a snail, with their guns peppering the slope all the time." It was a stiff ordeal, but a short one. Once within the redoubt the Canadians found it an easy matter to take prisoners, and the German Guardsmen ran willingly in the direction of the British—and safety.

WENT LIKE CLOCKWORK.

A Canadian officer who has been in the thick of the fighting since the war began, after alluding to the magnificent work of the artillery and the perfection of its timing, went on to say:—

"The whole thing went like clockwork. This division had a frontage of 1,800 yards, with two brigades in line and one in support. There were four distinct lines of defences to be taken, the last being 4,500 yards from our jumping-off trench. The first line of defence was a series of six trenches, 700 yards in depth with communicating trenches thrown out at intervals of 150 to 200 yards. The second line two trenches were 1,500 yards from our front line. After this gain was consolidated the supporting brigade passed through the other two and took the third line two trenches, 3,000 yards from our front line, and afterwards the fourth line, another series of heavily-wired trenches, 4,500 yards from our front line. The barrage finally lifted off the last objective six hours after the start, and the infantry sent forward patrols another 300 or 400 yards."

CANADIANS' GOOD SPIRITS.

A letter received in London this week from a Canadian artillery officer gives an idea of the good spirits in which the Canadians are doing their share in thrusting back the Hun. He says: "I suppose you are reading wonderful things in the papers, and visiting our few wounded. Well, things went finely, and we are very happy. There is plenty of work ahead of us, we know, but we are winning, which makes things a good deal easier I can tell you. . . . I saw the show from up forward, and had a fine view. The guns certainly made a noise which is literally beyond description or belief."

FAMISHED PRISONERS.

Famished survivors of the Vimy Ridge attack could not wait to be served by the Canadian orderlies who were doling out the rations as given to our own men. Battle police had to intervene and separate the struggling groups of Bavarians and Prussians, who could not stand patiently in a queue with the odour of hot food in their nostrils. They ate like wild beasts, and then tumbled into a muddy field and slept in sheer utter exhaustion, the snow drifting in their faces. The Canadians were even unnecessarily kind in looking after their prisoners. They have been able to study Hun character in detail. Four thousand prisoners—exactly 4,000—have sifted through the Vimy Ridge collecting cages. There were 78 officers, 3,164 men unhurt, and eight officers and 750 men were sent to casualty clearing stations. At another cage, where nearly 6,000 prisoners congregated in the first hours of our advance, there was an extraordinary scene of confusion when they clamoured for water and food, pressing against the barricade with such strength in their effort to reach the soldiers with supplies beyond that it broke under their weight.

CANADIANS' EXPERIENCES.

Wounded Canadian officers and men now in London have stirring stories to tell of their experiences and of the prowess of their comrades. All are in the best of spirits, and full of confidence in their ability to beat the enemy. The correspondents at the Front send some characteristic remarks:—

"Our losses were not nearly so high as we expected," said one lad, "but it was pretty bad all the same. Old Fritz had an ugly habit of keeping one hand on his machine-gun till we were fifty paces from him, and then holding up the other hand and shouting 'Mercy! Mercy!' I don't call that a good way of surrendering."

"I thought I should die," said another man, "when for hours I had to carry wounded through the snow over ground knee-deep in mud and all slippery. All my wounded were terribly heavy."

"They didn't wait for us," said a young Canadian officer. "One would think that the war would be over in a month by the way they ran yesterday."

"Old Fritz was scared out of his wits," said another lad. "He ran screaming from us. In a dug-out I found two Germans too scared even to run. They just sat and trembled like poor, cowed beasts."

Some Canadians found in a dug-out and released two British airmen, who were captured five days before. One was wounded and the other was put with him in a dug-out to look after him.

CANADA'S FRESH LAURELS.

Mr. Walter Long, Colonial Secretary, has cabled to the Duke of Devonshire:—

"May I offer to the Government and people of Canada my heartiest congratulations on the brilliant feat of the Canadian troops in their capture of Vimy Ridge. It is a glorious and memorable exploit which adds fresh laurels to the Canadian arms."

To this the Governor-General replied:—"On behalf of the Government and people of Canada I thank you for your telegram. We are all proud of the splendid achievement and hope the result will have a material effect on the progress of the war."

In a message cabled to Sir Julian Byng, Commanding the Canadian Expeditionary Force, the Duke of Devonshire said:—"Please accept on behalf of the Government and people of Canada my heartiest congratulations on the brilliant success of the Canadian troops under your command. The news has been received with the greatest enthusiasm throughout the Dominion."

Sir Edward Kemp, Minister of Militia, has also cabled congratulations to Sir Julian Byng. The victory, he says, will prove an inspiration to all the young men in Canada to join the colours without further hesitation.

The Governor-General of Australia has telegraphed to the Duke of Devonshire expressing the great admiration felt in Australia for the brilliant achievements of the Canadians in the recent fighting in France.

Colonel Moore's Career.

Col. Moore, who was 52 years of age, was in civil life Assistant Collector of Customs at Hamilton, Ont., where his mother (aged 95) and four sisters reside. He started his military career as a private in the 13th Royal Regiment, Hamilton, when a youth, and later was the Commanding Officer of that Regiment, succeeding his brother, Lieut-Col. A. H. Moore. At the time war broke out he was Brigadier of the 4th Infantry Brigade in Canada. For more than 30 years he took a keen interest in the military affairs of Canada, holding many important posts.

On the outbreak of war, Col. Moore offered his services to his country, and came to England as a supernumerary officer with the First Contingent. After a winter on Salisbury Plain, he accompanied the surplus and reserve troops of the 1st Canadian Division to Shorncliffe. He had been at Shorncliffe a little over two years. At first he was Camp Commandant at St. Martin's Plain, being transferred from that post to take over command of the Edmonton Reserve Batt., then under canvas on Lower Dibgate. After a tour in France, some time later, he returned home to Hamilton, Ont., on short, special leave. Shortly after his return to Shorncliffe, he was given command of the 6th Res. Inf. Brigade (old regime), and on the disbandment of this brigade he succeeded Col. Ashton in the command of the 3rd Res. Inf. Brigade (old regime). CANADA'S OVERSEAS MILITARY FORCES.

Duke of Connaught at Witley Notes on Officers, etc.

THE Duke of Connaught paid a visit of inspection on Saturday to the Canadian Camp at Witley, near Godalming. His Royal Highness, who was received by the General Officer commanding the Canadian infantry, went on a round of inspection occupying about a couple of hours. The Duke paid particular attention to the Irish Canadian Rangers, and in a few words to the men reminded them of the high esteem in which the late Duchess held them, and of the pride she took in presenting them with their colours. He expressed the certain belief that those who would be going to do service for the Empire would worthily uphold the high standard which their comrades had shown. The inspection ended with a march past representative of all the units of a complete fighting force. His Royal Highness took the salute at the saluting base, and complimented the commander of the camp upon its efficiency and completeness, and on the fine body of soldiers he had under his control.

Princess and the Forestry Corps.

Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein on Saturday opened a Y.M.C.A. recreation hut for the Canadian Forestry Corps in Windsor Great Park (constructed by the lumbermen themselves in seven days). Princess Victoria was received by Lieut.-Col. S. L. Penhorwood and members of the Ladies' Committee. Amongst those present were the Earl of Haddo, General MacDougall, Col. the Hon. Claude Willoughby (Deputy Ranger of Windsor Great Park) and Mrs. Willoughby, Mr. A. J. Forrest (Crown Receiver) and Mrs. Forrest, Lady Perley, the Rev. H. O. Moore (Chaplain, Windsor Great Park), Capt. the Rev. Elliot Baker (Chaplain to the Battalion), Col. and Mrs. G. V. White, Major Swinburne, Major Fetherstonhaugh, Major McNeil (Adjutant), Capt. and Qmr. Auger, Lieut. McBain, Lieut. Clark, Miss A. Loch, Mr. A. K. Yapp (General Secretary of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A.), Miss Notley, and Miss Church. The Princess afterwards took tea at the officers' mess and presented a baton to Bandmaster E. G. Redditt.

The Canadian Training School.

The Canadian Training School at Bexhill, under the direction of Major A. C. Critchley, D.S.O., was recently visited by Major-General Turner, Brig.-General Thacker, Brig.-General McRae, and the brigade commanders and officers commanding the various reserve battalions, who inspected the school and held a conference in regard to its work. In commemoration of their visit and also as a mark of their appreciation of the work carried on, they have presented a sum of £70 to provide a trophy to be held by the head cadet and officer in each class.

Notes on Officers.

The following are struck off the strength as surplus to establishment:—Lieut.-Cols. R. de la B. Girouard, R. H. Greer, W. J. Green, H. Harrison, T. J. Johnston, and H. B. Putnam; Majors H. B. Lieut. Fred. E. Neel, until recently Officer in Charge of the now disbanded Canadian Bombing School, Shorncliffe, is a patient at West Cliff Canadian Hospital, Folkestone. About five months ago Lieut. Neel was pretty badly hurt through the premature explosion of a bomb, and had to spend several weeks in Moore Barracks Canadian Military Hospital, being finally discharged as fit again, but with a piece of the bomb embedded in his head between the left eye and ear. Latterly this has been giving him a certain amount of discomfort necessitating its removal. The operation was successfully performed last week, and the patient is now making good progress towards recovery.

Lieut. J. A. Cameron (Toronto), C.A.P.C., Paymaster at Shorncliffe Military Hospital, has been promoted to the rank of Temp. Capt. Capt. Cameron, who was for some time editor of the Canadian Engineer, came to England with the First Contingent as Transport Officer of the 3rd Toronto Batt.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN AT ORPINGTON.

The Ontario Military Hospital, Orpington, has been honoured by a visit from Sir Robert Borden. The Premier was met by Col. McPherson, O.C., who conducted him into the large recreation room, where patients and officers were assembled to give him welcome.

The first act Sir Robert was called upon to perform was to present the Military Medal to Sergt. Roe, of Toronto, who last fall, during the great Somme offensive, greatly distinguished himself in saving the life of Major O'Gorman, of Ottawa. Sergt. Roe just succeeded in getting this wounded officer to a place of safety when he himself was badly wounded by a shrapnel shell. The Premier, in making the presentation, sincerely congratulated Sergt. Roe on his brave and plucky exploit, and expressed the hope that he would soon be restored to health and strength again. Sir Robert, in a patriotic and inspiring address, dwelt particularly on the good work Ontario had done in building and equipping such a splendid hospital, emphasising also the splendid offering the banner Province of Canada has made in her contribution of men, money and material to the cause of the war. He roused enthusiasm by telling "the boys" how the good work our soldiers are doing at the Front is received at home.

The Premier was then shown over the hospital by Col. McPherson, and on visiting the different wards was introduced to the medical officers and nursing sisters in charge, as as well as to every Canadian patient. He was afterwards entertained to tea by Col. and Mrs. McPherson.

LONDON, Tuesday.

The Stock Exchange during the week has been firm, but not very brisk. Investment is being deflected to some extent into the new 5 per Cent. Exchequer Bonds, and other Government securities also meet a good deal of attention, to the detriment of general markets.

Among Canadian securities dealings have not been at all extensive, but steadiness has prevailed, and individual stocks have been firm. Among the gilt-edged issues of the Dominion the Old Fours have risen ⅛ to 78, but the 4½ per Cents. are unchanged.

Canadian rails have not been prominent. Canadian Pacifics, though under best, are higher on balance around 170½. Among Grand Trunk stocks the junior descriptions show gains of ⅛ to ¼, while the Guaranteed Fours and the 4 per Cent. Debentures are each a point to the good. Canadian Northern issues have been steady.

Hudson's Bays in the land group have been moderately supported, and have advanced to 6 13-16. There has been no movement in lower-priced descriptions.

As regards industrials, Steel of Canada has fallen a point to 65. There has been no variation in Canadian Car issues. Dominion Steels have dropped to 65. Cities Services have marked up to 310 on the statement made in the annual report.

Brazilian Tractions, after showing some strength, have fallen back to 48½.

OUR TORONTO LETTER.

TORONTO, March 27.

Despite the favourable developments which have occurred during the past week—including increases of dividends by Laurentide and Maple Leaf, resumption of dividends by the Dominion Steel Corporation, and the announcement of the heavy over-subscription of the War Loan—the market improvement, which was evident when I last wrote, has not been maintained, and business again runs in narrow grooves, with the volume of trading small and price movements irregular. The paper stocks, after a renewal of activity last week, are again quiet. I note, by the way, that Abitibi shares are to be listed in Montreal soon. Interest was naturally stimulated in Dominion Steel owing to the dividend announcement, but after being in some demand the final result of the activity was a slight decline in price. Yesterday the most active stocks were Maple Leaf and Steel of Canada, both of which declined slightly. Canadian Locomotives have advanced a little. At the end of last week Lyall was noticeable by reason of an 8 point advance to 80.

It is stated that the Province of Manitoba has sold to Wood, Gundy & Co. and the National City Bank of New York $2,000,000 5 per Cent. 5-Year Bonds at a price about 98 and interest. It is suggested by bond houses and others that the heavy over-subscription of the War Loan should strengthen the market for gilt-edged securities. It is pointed out that many big institutions which subscribed largely for the loan will not be allotted bonds equal to their applications, and that they will, therefore, have to find other forms of investment for considerable sums of money.

Among current market quotations Scotia is 100, Dominion Steel Corporation 65½, Steel of Canada 66¼, Cement 65, Canadian Car 27, Dominion Bridge 137, Canadian General Electric 111, Canadian Locomotive 57, Civic Power 81¼, Laurentide 188½, Riordon 122, Wayagamack 83, Spanish River 17¾, Canada Steamships 39¼, Quebec Railway 25½, Toronto Railway 89, Maple Leaf 115, Russell Motor Preference 116, Lyall 78.

The Mining markets have been quiet, the only feature of interest being the strength shown by McIntyre and Newrae, both of which have risen steadily. It is announced that the main vein of the 7,000-ft. level of McIntyre, having been drifted upon for 900 ft., shows ore all the way, cross-cutting showing a width of 28 ft. in places. The report of Hollinger for the four weeks ended February 25 shows gross profits of $210,868, while dividends at the reduced rate required $123,000. Hollinger is $5.25, Dome Mines $18.70, McIntyre $1.93, Newrae $1.33, Dome Extension 26¼, Dome Lake 18½. Among the silver stocks Nipissing is $8.15, Temiskaming, 51½, Crown Reserve 35, Hargraves 20½, La Rose 51, McKinley 51½.

Mr. W. Maclachlan presided, and dealt at some length with the scheme, after which a long discussion took place. Finally, on the motion of the Chairman, the meeting was adjourned for a month in order that the Board and the bondholders' committee should try to get better terms from Messrs. Whalen Brothers.

INVESTMENT NOTES.

In the course of a statement announcing the great success of the recently-issued Canadian War Loan, Sir Thomas White stated that the over-subscription of the loan by $100,000,000 " means that the banks will receive no part of their $60,000,000 of subscriptions and that the other large subscriptions will be substantially scaled down on allotment." " This," says Sir Thomas, " will make for a very strong financial and market situation, as Canadian liquid bank funds will be conserved for the general purposes of the community, and the unsatisfied demand for the loan should more than maintain the issue price." The result of the issue, said Sir Thomas, has demonstrated " that Canada, if she chooses, can do her own war financing among her own people. That is to say, it is within our own power to be self-contained financially. If the people of Canada will continue to save money we shall finish the war with the greatest part of our debt held by Canadians. This would constitute a very strong position, which we should strive our utmost to attain."

No one who is interested in the Canadian industrial position will overlook the various very important aspects of the shipbuilding programme which is now being commenced under Government control and with strong Government encouragement in Canada. It is stated that the tonnage which it is already proposed to build during the next two years will entail an expenditure of about $100,000,000, and as the new industry is as yet in its very early stages of development, this may be very greatly exceeded. The development of the Canadian munitions industry is an indication of Canadian ability to cope with new situations and new problems. The tonnage, the building of which is already contemplated, promises to create a demand for steel and steel products which will assist the big steel plants most usefully during the period when they might otherwise be expected to suffer through the cessation of munitions orders. But of even greater importance is the probability that the movement, now developing under the spur of world-wide need and therefore high values of ocean tonnage, may lay the foundations of a permanent industry for which Canada has been admirably equipped by nature.

By the declaration on March 20 of a dividend of 2½ per cent. for the quarter, the Laurentide Co. placed its Common stock on a 10 per cent. per annum dividend basis. Quite apart from the phenomenal prosperity of the pulp and paper industry it has been apparent for some time that the company was in a position that promised well for its shareholders. The report for the year which ended June 30, 1916, showed investments of $3,361,200, which, by the way, was understood to represent mainly the company's power interests, and as this amount equalled more than one-third of the amount of the company's capital stock it was obvious that a very moderate return on its investments would appreciably increase the earnings available for distribution. Since 1911, when the old Laurentide Paper Co. gave place to the present company, dividends have been regularly paid at the rate of 2 per cent. each quarter.

It is expected in Toronto that the annual report of the Sawyer-Massey Co., which, as it covers the year ended November 30, 1916, is now overdue, will soon be issued and will show a considerable improvement in the company's financial position. It is stated that apart from shortage of labour the company experienced favourable conditions, and was able to market its products very satisfactorily. Shareholders will await the report with interest in the hope that the directors may soon find it possible to say something about a resumption of Preferred dividends, payment of which has been suspended since 1914.

The movement towards the transference of Canadian Provincial and municipal indebtedness from Great Britain to America is assuming increased importance, and is now of very considerable proportions. The example which was set by Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and the City of Winnipeg last autumn has since then been followed by Ontario and the City of Montreal. Toronto has also formulated a plan for similar debt transference, and towards the end of March a Bill was introduced into the Nova Scotia Legislature authorising the flotation of a loan in New York for the purpose of refunding sterling loans to the amount of $10,000,000. It is stated that the refunding operations now in progress concern a total Canadian indebtedness of over $100,000,000, which includes loans to the amount of $33,000,000 by the City of Montreal, $32,000,000 by Toronto, and $17,000,000 by the Province of Ontario. The profit which the debtors concerned may secure by the repurchase of their sterling loans at current prices through the medium of loans floated at current rates in the U.S. is obvious, but, as pointed out in Canada last week, many British holders of these high-class Canadian securities may prove unwilling to part with them at current prices.

WAR CONTINGENT ASSOCIATION.

Its Services to the Canadian Troops.

The third report of the Canadian War Contingent Association, presented at the meeting held in the Charing Cross Railway Hotel, London, last Wednesday, is an excellent record of services rendered for the men of the Overseas Military Forces of Canada during the past year.

The Queen's Canadian Military Hospital, Beachborough Park, Shorncliffe, which is operated and maintained by the Association, has been doing useful work, its 125 beds being invariably fully occupied.

There were received during 1916 the following among other articles from Canada, in the way of extra comforts:—Socks, 280,000 pairs; flannel shirts, 12,500; gauze shirts, 1,600; wristlets, 5,000; mufflers, 4,500; besides handkerchiefs, body belts, gloves, helmets, etc.

About 11,000 bales (average weight 56lb.) of extra comforts of various kinds were sent during the year from the Association to the different units at the Front, exclusive of parcels forwarded through the post. This does not include many consignments forwarded direct from the manufacturers, cases arriving ear-marked for special units or particular officers, or the large numbers of private parcels for soldiers sent in care of the Association.

Nearly 250,000 pairs of socks were distributed during 1916, and 100,000 were despatched in November and December—when they were particularly needed owing to the bad weather. Several letters have been received stating that these supplies of socks were largely instrumental in preventing suffering from trench feet among the men.

In addition the Association has from time to time supplied a gramophone to practically every large unit at the Front; a portable cinematograph to each brigade; a baseball outfit to each unit, besides other athletic material in the shape of boxing gloves, footballs and other articles for recreation purposes. The cost of much of the athletic material has been shared with the Canadian Y.M.C.A., which also joins with the Association in the supply of 30,000 sheets of notepaper, 15,000 envelopes, and about 8,000 magazines weekly to each division.

The subscriptions received during the year amounted to £12,543 13s. 5d., including a donation of £5,000 from the Canadian Red Cross Society towards the expenses of the hospital. It will be seen that the expenditure exceeded the income by £3,209 17s. 3d.—less the sum of £1,362 16s. 1d., due from the War Office, which has since been paid.

The funds actually in hand at the end of December, 1916, were £11,586 11s. 5d., as against £14,796 8s. 8d. in 1915. The balance at the present time has been much reduced, owing to heavy expenditure during the winter for extra comforts, and to obligations in connection with the extension of the hospital.

The expenditure during the present year is likely to be exceptionally heavy, as the beds at the hospital will probably be kept fully occupied; and the demands for comforts, in view of the increase in the forces at the Front, will certainly be much greater than ever.

BRITISH PRISONERS OF WAR ASSOCIATION.

Founded in May, 1915, by the Rev. Hugh B. Chapman, Chaplain of the Royal Chapel of Savoy, in order to send parcels of food and other necessaries to the loneliest and most friendless among the prisoners, the Royal Savoy Association for the Relief of British Prisoners of War has done splendid work. Since December, 1916, the Association has been working in conjunction with the Central Prisoners of War Committee, and has under its care special units of the Imperial Forces. Each prisoner receives six parcels a month, while regular supplies of clothing, bread and tobacco are also sent. The cost per month per prisoner is £2 3s., so, as may be gathered, a large sum is needed every four weeks to defray the actual cost of food and other requisites. More than 30,000 parcels have already been sent out by the British Prisoners of War Association, and funds are now urgently needed in order that this good work may be maintained. Cheques should be made payable to the Secretary, or the Treasurer, Miss Lilian A Cowell, 7, Savoy Hill, Strand, London, W.C.2.

PUTTEES.

To the uninitiated one puttee—on the principle of the general indistinguishability of all Chinamen is very much like another, but those who have experience know that there are puttees and puttees. The leading puttee, and one which is worn very extensively by officers of the Imperial and Allied Forces, is Lupton's Patent Spiral Fastedge Puttee, manufactured by Astrachans, Ltd., Albert Mill, Allan Street, Bradford, and distributed by them to all high-class military tailors and outfitters. These puttees always look neat and smart, they are moderate in price, and are positively non-frayable advantages which should commend them to those Canadian officers who, having occasion to renew their equipment, desire to maintain a smart military appearance.

Ontario after the War WATER POWER.

The whole industrial success of Ontario may be said to depend upon the development of its water power.

The water power of Ontario is cheapened and made generally available by Government control and operation, and nearly every city and town in Ontario has already been provided with hydro-electric power both for lighting and manufacturing purposes.

The importance of this phase of development may be realised from the fact that Ontario to-day has 16,000 factories depending upon water power, with an annual output amounting to $579,000,000.

The enormous reserve of Ontario's water power may be realised from the fact that, of the many millions of horse-power available, only about 10 per cent. has, up to now, been brought under control.

NOTES INVESTMENTS.

C.P.R.'s Half Yearly Revenue Statement.

In view of the recent marked upward trend in the working expenses of the Canadian railways, holders of C.P.R. shares were pleased to have an opportunity of studying the results achieved by the vast trans-continental system for the first half of the current fiscal year, viz., to December 31 last. The statement issued last week by the directors shows that the gross earnings from the railway and the Lake and Coastal steamers was $76,717,965. Of this total $15,843,199 was absorbed in working expenditure, leaving the net earnings for the six months at $30,874,766. Fixed charges called for $5,132,551, so that the surplus is $25,742,215. From this has to be deducted the contribution to the Pension Fund ($200,000), whilst the net earnings of the Coastal steamers, commercial telegraph and news department, $1,144,071, are transferred to the special income account, leaving the net increase from the earnings of the railway and Lake steamers available for dividends at the substantial figure of $24,398,144. After providing for all dividends declared for the half-year, the surplus from railway and Lake steamers earnings is $13,681,506. Due allowance being made for contingent reserves, the special income for the half-year is $6,415,352. Such results as these certainly do not justify any forebodings as to the ability of the directors to maintain the dividend at its present rate for the current year, even supposing that that unknown quantity—the working expense ratio—continues largely to offset increasing gross revenue during the second half of the present fiscal year. It will be remembered that the net revenue from railway earnings for the eight months July, 1916 February, 1917, was $1,283,000 in excess of that for the corresponding period of 1915—16.

Important New Treasury Order.

We advise those of our readers who are holders of American or Canadian securities to pay particular attention to the terms of Treasury (Securities) Order No. 3, published this week, which contains full details of a large number of investments which the Treasury have decided to requisition under the summary powers they possess, as failure to comply with the demand for any such securities not coming under the exemption clauses is an offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations and liable to heavy penalties for non-compliance with the Order. Those who have any doubts as to their position—and many people must already be mystified by the succession of orders dealing with a complicated subject—would do well to take the advice of their banker or broker immediately. Whilst the majority of the securities included in the new list are American, and in many cases unknown to the average investor, there is a sprinkling of Canadian investments, including Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co. 1st Mortgage and Collateral Trust 4½ per Cent., 1932, ditto Lachine Division Sinking Fund, 5 per Cent. 1933, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Saulte Ste. Marie Railway 2nd Mortgage 4 per Cent., 1949. The second schedule of the Order dealing with the provisions under which securities may be exempted defines very clearly the position of those holders of securities who for various reasons are able to claim exemption from its operation. But, we repeat, where any doubt exists as to the position of holders it is advisable to take the advice of their bankers or brokers, whose business it is to become conversant with the intricacies of what has, owing to the multiplicity of orders on the subject, become a complicated financial problem.

Canadian General Electrics Record Results.

The annual report of the Canadian General Electric Company, presented at the annual meeting held at Toronto on March 21, explains the increased attention paid to the shares of this important Canadian industrial undertaking during the past few months, and justifies to the hilt the consistently favourable views held as to its future by Canada for many years past. During the twelve months under review the company enjoyed remarkable prosperity, as may be gauged from the fact that its gross profits were practically double those for the preceding year $2,225,912, against $1,219,514, and constitute a record in the history of the company. With commendable caution the board has not only carried $408,888 to reserve for depreciation, but it has also transferred $631,603 to a special reserve for the amortisation of the munition plants and their equipment. When this is done the net profit of $1,185,421 is still more than $400,000 up on the year. Deducting the dividends paid and adding the amount brought forward from last year there is a total surplus of $1,112,690, against $1,007,119 for 1915, which enables the management to add $500,000 to the reserve, increasing this to $3,500,000, and carry forward $612,690 as against $707,429 brought in. In commenting on the gradual improvement in the financial position, Lt.-Col. the Hon. Frederic Nicholls, the President, pointed out that by the reduction of the mortgage indebtedness during the year from $1,367,751 to $413,813, the fixed charges are now at a merely nominal figure, whilst the total liquid assets stand at $8,340,013, the reserve for depreciation at $2,930,948, and the surplus, including reserve account and balance at credit of profit and loss account $4,112,690. The total assets aggregate $19,615,213. Excluding the influence of that unknown factor, labour, the President told the shareholders that the outlook indicated a continuance of the increase in sales experienced in 1916. The directors and the shareholders alike are to be heartily congratulated on such splendid results as those now disclosed, whilst the strong financial position revealed is highly creditable to the conservative policy of the management. The balance-sheet appears on page 87.

Guaranteed stock and 2½ per cent. on the First Preference stocks, amounting to £335,420 15s., were paid on November 2 last, leaving a balance of £481,867 11s. 3d., from which the directors recommend the payment of further dividends of 2 per cent. and 2½ per cent. on those stocks respectively and 5 per cent. on the Second Preference stock, being the full dividends for the year. ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

N B.—All letters asking for information or advice must contain an enquiry coupon from the current issue of "Canada," except when the enquirer is an annual subscriber.

Detailed replies by letter are not made except to annual subscribers. Non-subscribers desiring detailed or exhaustive replies by letter must enclose a P.O. for 5s., which will cover three questions.

Copies should be kept of questions, and these should be numbered when more than one is asked.

Enquiries regarding investment matters should be marked "Financial" on the left-hand top corner of envelope.

The fullest particulars of special investment opportunities in Canada mentioned from time to time in the column headed "Investment Notes and Opportunities" are supplied on request to readers who are annual subscribers.

Enquiries by telegram in regard to new issues can be made if a reply is prepaid, but this privilege is extended only to annual subscribers.

FINANCIAL AND REAL ESTATE.

DIVIDEND.—Seven per cent. per annum on the Preferred and 4 per cent. on the Common. Both are paid quarterly.

S. S. (Yarmouth).—It has been announced that British Columbia salmon will be allowed to be imported into Great Britain under special licence. The second part of your question, therefore, does not arise.

J. L. K. (Huddersfield).—The effect, if any should, we believe, prove favourable. There is no suggestion of any repudiation of contract obligations, and it is possible that under the new régime transportation matters may be handled more expeditiously.

INTERESTED.—All the company's product is used by the important group of companies with which it is so closely allied as to be practically owned by them. The annual statement is not usually published separately and, indeed, very little information is issued in regard to the company's accounts. There is, however, every reason to believe that the bond interest is well provided for, and we regard the bonds themselves as a sound investment.

J. T. H. (London, E.C.).—(1) The usual quarterly dividend has recently been declared and, in view of the recent official statement, it seems that the directors anticipate no difficulty in maintaining the regular rate. (2) We have no information further to that which was published in a recent issue, and to which you refer. It hardly seems probable that any further official statement will be available until the annual statement is issued.

GENERAL.

H. H. H. (France).—According to the Army estimates for the year prior to the outbreak of the war, the total effectives on Jan. 1, 1914, were reckoned as 633,099, including Regular Forces 156,110, Army Reserve 146,756, Special Reserve 63,059, Territorial Forces 251,706. In addition the effective Regular Forces on the Indian establishment were given as 78,476, making grand total effectives on Jan. 1, 1914, 711,575.

Q.—The statistical report of the Mines Branch of the Department of Colonisation, Mines and Fisheries, of which the Hon. Honore Mercier is Minister, shows that the total value of the mineral production of the Province of Quebec for the year ended December 31, 1916, amounted to $13,070,566, an increase of 14 per cent. as compared with the previous year. The main item in the list is asbestos, with a value of $5,182,905. Other items which show very substantial increases are lead and zinc ores, chromite, magnesite, mica and molybdenite.

CANADA'S NATURAL RESOURCES.

The office of the High Commissioner for Canada, 19, Victoria Street, London, S.W., has received the following information by cablegram from the Hon. W. J. Roche, M.P., Minister of the Interior at Ottawa:

During the past few weeks the farmers of Manitoba have expended a sum of nearly $1,000,000 in the purchase of seed grain, and over 400,000 bushels have been purchased. A larger acreage will be sown than last year. There is a demand for Manitoba wheat for seed purposes for use in France.

Reports of seeding came from Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, on April 10, and seeding started in Southern Saskatchewan on April 5.

There are 20,000 acres under cultivation in the Pouce Coupe district, Peace River, and 1,000 homesteads, with a population of 800.

Within a distance of twenty miles north and east of Lake St. John, Province of Quebec, there are valuable water powers, estimated at 150,000 h.p.

TRADE ENQUIRIES.

Opportunities for British and Canadian Firms.

Among trade enquiries received at the Canadian Trade Commissioner's Office, 73, Basinghall Street, London, E.C. 2, is the following:—

A representative of a Halifax firm, now in the United Kingdom, is desirous of obtaining supplies of plate and sheet glass, also building and hardware supplies, and would be pleased to hear from manufacturers seeking a business in Canada, Newfoundland, and the West Indies.

The experimental farm work at the substation at Beaver Lodge, Grand Rapids, Peace River, is of a valuable character. During last year some good crops were obtained under unfavourable conditions. Apple trees are now under test there.

Representatives from the Canadian Forestry Department recently surveyed a large tract of land at the head of the Copper River, Northern British Columbia, which is heavily timbered with wood suitable for the manufacture of pulp.

Some large purchases have been made in the Dominion by the Department of Trade and Commerce on behalf of the Allied Governments, including blankets for France, 35,000 bags of flour for South Africa, and blankets and men's underwear for Italy.

One of the latest features introduced by the Canadian Northern Railway on its trans-continental trains is a "travellers' shop," in charge of the porter in the observation car. The stock of the shop will consist of a complete set of articles that a traveller is likely to forget in packing up for the trip.

Canadian Government TRADE COMMISSIONER SERVICE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

The Department of Trade and Commerce of Canada has established the following Trade Commissioners in the United Kingdom:—

EXTRACTS FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE CANADIAN GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES submitted to the Shareholders at the Annual General Meeting of the Company in Toronto, on Wednesday, March 21st, 1917.

Your Directors submit herewith the Balance Sheet of the Company as upon the 31st day of December, 1916, also Statement of Profit and Loss for the year, and certificate of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., Chartered Accountants.

An examination of the Statement of Profit and Loss will show that a gross profit of $2,225,912.19 was earned, which is in excess of any previous year in the history of the Company. The sum of $408,887.73 has been reserved for depreciation of buildings, machinery and patterns, and in addition a further sum of $631,603.50 has been reserved for the amortisation of munitions plants and equipment, leaving a net profit of $1,185,420.96. From this amount the sum of $779,843.90 has been paid in Dividends, leaving a surplus for the year of $405,577.06. This surplus added to last year's balance at the credit of Profit and Loss Account makes a total at the credit of that account of $1,112,696.09. From this total the sum of $500,000.00 has been transferred to Reserve, bringing the amount to the credit of Reserve Account to $3,500,000.00 and leaving a balance of $612,696.09 to the credit of Profit and Loss.

Your Directors are pleased to be able to report that during the year the mortgage indebtedness on properties purchased has been reduced from $1,367,751.25 to the sum of $413,813.90, thus reducing our fixed charges to a nominal amount. Our total Liquid Assets, including Cash on Hand, Accounts Receivable, Inventory and Investments, amount to $8,340,013.79, and a reference to our Balance Sheet will show that our Reserve for Depreciation now amounts to $2,920,948.07, and our surplus, including Reserve Account and the balance at the credit of Profit and Loss, to $4,112,696.09.

Following the usual policy of the Company our Inventory has been taken at or below cost, and sufficient allowance has been made in respect to any goods considered to be either obsolete or not readily saleable.

It will also be noticed that the item of Patents, Contracts and Goodwill is carried in our Assets at the nominal sum of $1.00.

Our sales of machinery and supplies show a very gratifying increase over the preceding year, and from present indications the situation should continue to improve. At the present time there are approximately five thousand employees on the pay rolls of the Company at its various plants and offices, but the scarcity of labour is our principal difficulty in the way of further increasing production.

The detachment of twenty-five electrical and mechanical engineers contributed by the Company for service during the continuance of the war has been, and will be, continuously maintained, and in addition thereto generous contributions have been made to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, Red Cross Society, and other deserving war time funds, and recently a sum of $500,000.00 has been invested in the Canadian War Loan.

Immediately after the outbreak of war all branches of business suffered so materially that your Directors were confronted with two alternatives: either to discharge a large proportion of the staff, or to retain as many as possible in the employment of the Company, the staff themselves co-operating by accepting a reduction of 20 per cent. on their salaries until such time as conditions improved. Since that date the Company has experienced the benefit of improved business, and therefore has repaid to those still in the employ of the Company the total amount deducted during the time the reduction was in force, the sum involved amounting to $130,000.00.

Your Directors desire to express their great regret at the death of the late Honourable J. K. Kerr, K.C., a Vice-President of the Company. The late Senator Kerr was a charter member of the Company, having been one of its original Directors, and had rendered valuable services to the Company for over twenty-five years.

The vacant Vice-Presidency has been filled by the election of Mr. A. E. Dyment to that office.

FREDERIC NICHOLLS,
President.
